I must tell you something that happened a few years ago, when I went with the kids to the bathhouse. We planned to go there earlier in the day, but one thing lead to another and suddenly we had to hurry to get there before closing time.

But, in we came and had time for a lot of play, diving and even swimming. All of a sudden a friend of my wife shows up at the edge of the pool. Oh, boy, I thought...someone who came even later with the children than we did. I got up and we sat down and talked for a short time about everything and nothing, when Linda suddenly asks if I could take the girls and come to the relaxation area. I thought this was a bit strange as it was basically closing time, and the few who were left were picking up their things and walking off towards the showers and changing rooms.

Anyway, after a little inducement on her part, we went over there all four of us, and once there we also saw Linda's two children...and almost immediately she suggested that Pia and Petra, my daughters, should go over there and play...she was too slow though, because they were almost there already and did just that.

Linda is a sexy woman, the same age as me, I think, almost 40...and very stylish, nice shapes and beautiful breasts.

First she's quiet for a while, then she looks at me a little obliquely, and says, "So Eric, remember when we last met at our house and ate food, and you thought you should taste so much more than what was invited to the table?"

"You remember that, don't you? You touched and held my hands, every time I gave you a refill. And took every chance under the table to feel and play with my feet...you really had big plans for that night?! And I'll tell you, I actually think you don't look completely wrong, good-looking and ok body, so if I had thoughts of cheating, or leaving my husband, you'd be high on that list my friend. But right now, the situation isn't like that, and even though I liked the touches, you crossed boundaries then. And we have to do something about that, my dear."

I didn't know what to think or feel, let alone if it actually happened what was happening now.

"Yes, like I said...do something about it. And just tonight I've arranged a surprise for you. Maybe you don't know I work extra here and take care of both openings and closures...and I knew that I pretty soon would be able to fix something nice for you. Something we both can talk about the next time you caress me....or what do you think? You can think of my feet when the surprise enters you.”

“But, Linda, I...I like you as a friend and friend of my wife. And I'd been drinking a lot when that happened. Of course I think you're nice and sexy, but it was too much to drink, and I shouldn't have done that when we met. I'm sorry, I'm sorry. It won't happen again.”

“So be it...but I think you might have done this to other women too, when you had too much to drink. And I feel like you have a struggling part in you that must come out, and believe me when I say...it will tonight. Both get out and far in as well. You'll understand soon.”

“You look insecure and confused. I understand that, and we don't have to drag this out anymore, because the entertainment for the evening is over there.”

When I turned around and looked in the same direction as Linda, I saw two larger and colored men coming towards us. Probably the same age as us or slightly older, but that's not what I was thinking about the most. And now the heart immediately started beating faster, because they went straight over to Petra and Pia, picked them up in their respective arms and came towards us. And I immediately saw that they were holding my children unsuitable, and had their fingers in a way that's not okay with anyone in middle school. Really not okay.

Now it had all happened so fast, so no one had had time to react to the situation...but as soon as I got up with more and more boiling blood inside me, both girls started twisting to get loose. Then the men's grip hardened, while their fingers ended up even more obscene...

Linda was quickly up, pulling me down again....whispered a couple of things in my ear that made me pale white in the face...

“Yes, but how nice...then we all agree. I'll take the children with me for burgers or other goodies, and after that we'll go to our house so you can play there, or watch movies, before your mom comes to pick you up. That sounds pretty good, right girls?

“I think your dad's a little excited about his adventures tonight, so don't think about him anymore. Let's go have a good time, and you, dear dad...you have the same. Big hugs! Come on, let's go now.”

As in a dream, I saw the girls slowly and gradually walk away, while I nodded almost not noticeable towards them...

Before they've even gotten out of sight, one of the men lifts my head up and asks if I'd sucked cock before...and I certainly haven't. Even though I've thought about it once and twice...but right now I was thinking about everything Linda said and about my girls.

“So, my friend...you have not sucked dick before?! Then today will be the first then. And I guess you haven't been fucked either...but you will tonight. Oh, you will. It's good with new experiences, and you might even like it so much, you want us to meet again. Well, either way, I don't care...just start sucking our cocks now!”

While he had been talking, they had moved the bench I was sitting on in a better position for both of them. And quite synchronized, both had also pulled down their shorts and moved much closer to me. When I hesitated and didn't move, he said I had to react faster tonight, if I didn't want this adventure to involve more people in my family. And with that, I grabbed their dicks and moved so close that I could almost touch them with my lips.

I'm a person who showers quite often, probably too often. I've been teased by friends and acquaintances and probably Linda had taken up on it too, because these men hadn't showered in the near future...

As soon as I approached them with my nose, I smelled sweat and coughed. They found that a bit irritating, but ignored it completely and the first guy just grabbed his sagging cock and shoved it hard into my mouth.

And without thinking, I started sucking him. Right after the other one also shoved his unwashed cock adjacent...and I sucked that too in my mouth.

I guess it was okay how I sucked them, because they both started growing fast in my mouth, and with my hands I was constantly jerking off the dick that wasn't deep in my mouth.

I don't think I have a little dick...It's not big, but still... in comparison to the cocks I was now in the process of sucking... the size difference, almost double mine.

After a while, both were really stiff, and had the situation not been as it was, I could almost have been proud of my achievement. But I had a short time to think about that, because now I was pushed to the bench. Where one of them pushed my legs, pulled off my shorts in one swoop, grabbed my buttocks and pulled them apart brusquely. Seconds later, he bent over and started licking my anal, and I was so surprised I moaned...

"So, you like getting licked anally. Perfect, because that is exactly what you are going to do right now. Get to it, get in there deep...I want to feel your tongue all the way inside me. Now!"

While he was saying the last thing, he'd stripped completely, turned around, and shoved his ass up inches from my mouth. And if the dicks weren't washed, his ass was in the same condition. It smelled so bad, I choked again. But it wasn't appreciated, so he grabbed the back of my head and pushed it straight so my mouth sat directly against his entrance. And I started licking tentatively, smelling all the new flavors and odors I didn't want to smell...but I licked around his hole with my tongue.

"Get in there, how many times should I tell you?! Lick me clean...and probe your tongue really deep."

Just like with their cocks, most of the smells disappeared the more I licked and sucked. I guess I got used to it too. And when I'd had my tongue all inside him several times and licked quite a lot around as well, he got up and told his anal-licking friend to get out of the way.

He grabbed my legs, moved me a little closer to him, stood a little half uncomfortable, yanked his cock a bit and put the impressive cock-head against my asshole.

"I hope my friend here fingered or tongued you equally deep as you did me, otherwise this is going to hurt like hell. And hell no I care a bit about that...but you better not move or scream."

And with the last sentence, he started pushing his rough baguette for a cock. And it stopped right away. Pulled back, jerked off a little more and while he made another attempt, now with a lot more force, his friend came up, straddled my chest and shoved his cock into my mouth, hard and all the way. And that's probably the best choking I've had all night, because right then, he pushed his cock deep into my ass...not in the slightest cautiously he drove it directly to the bottom and without hesitation he began to pump decisively inside out at once. Long hauls out and force shoved hard all the way in.

It was a good thing I had my mouth filled to the brim, because I screamed. Screamed and about half passed out...but woke up almost instantly with punches to the face, and comments that I should suck properly, and shove a couple of fingers in his ass and make sure I did this well, so they both could fill me up with cum at the same time.

I sucked and fingered and got hard and deeply fucked in what felt for quite some time...I don't know if it was or not, but suddenly both started pushing more intense, breathing heavy and moaning a lot louder...and I noticed the familiar twitches in both of their dicks...and soon after, they began to fill my mouth and anal. And these guys had vast amounts saved...I sucked and swallowed the best I could, sucked him hard and swallowed all I possibly could of the loads he was filling my mouth with.

My ass felt like it was bursting. First his oversized rough cock thrusting deep inside, and then filled with at least as much cum as his face-fucking friend delivered from his big hose.

After a while, they both pulled out of my holes...stood there and looked at me...

After far too long, he who was speaking all the time said,
"You did well today my friend. We both liked you and can think of fucking your brains out a second time. I think you would like to see us again. Maybe you don't think so right now...but you do. I can see it on your expressions and how you reacted to the deep hard fucking and sucking.
And we have a couple of more friends who also like to fuck you in many dirty ways.
I tell Linda you were a perfect fucktoy and she will give you our contact info. Maybe you have another friend who also needs to let out steam and bottled-up emotions...
...yes, we will see more of each other...

And after looking at me for a short time, they took their shorts and walked away.

I relaxed completely, just deep sighed and let out a lot of air from my lungs and thought about...nothing... the night...what just happened...and that I actually had a hard-on.
A really bulging hard-on.
